

Lawrence William Green Jr.

November 20, 1956 - April 21, 2021

His Journey...

CAPTAIN LAWRENCE WILLIAM GREEN, JR., affectionately known as “Willie”, passed away at his home in Salisbury, Maryland on Wednesday, April 21, 2021. He was born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 20, 1956 to the late Lawrence William “Greenie” Green, Sr. and Evelyn Green.

After graduating from Queen Anne’s County High School, Willie pursued his love of the water and became the Captain of “The Hattie Lawrence.” He then spent the majority of his life working as a waterman and local mechanic. He enjoyed chartering fishing parties, tonging and working on vehicles. He also loved to talk, laugh, share a joke and help anyone in need.

Willie really enjoyed talking and spending time with family and friends on a daily basis. During his quiet times, he could be found either reading his Bible or on his computer, from which he earned the nickname, “Mr. Google”, while enjoying a bite to eat.

Willie leaves to cherish precious memories: three sons and six daughters, Travis and Jason Green, both of Salisbury, Maryland, Lawrence Green III of Stevensville, Maryland, LaToya Green of Washington, DC, Ameatria Johnson (Antonio) of Cambridge, Maryland, Iania Bivens-Elliott (DiShawn) of Salisbury, Maryland, Winter Green of Salisbury, Maryland, Keania Wills (Reginald) of Salisbury, Maryland, and Alesia Gier of Stevensville, Maryland; one brother, Charles Green and two sisters, Linda Green and Tempa Green (Harry), all of Kent Island, Maryland; twenty-two (22) grandchildren; one great grandson; three lifetime friends, Iantha "Ike" Askins, Kanya "Kay" Bivens and Karen Green as well as several nieces, nephews, other family and friends.
