

Leon George Gibbs Sr.

January 28, 1937 - January 10, 2015

Leon George Gibbs was born in Johns Island (Redtop), South Carolina on January 28, 1937 to the late Estelle Smashum and Aaron Gibbs and died on January 10, 2015 in Kent General Hospital in Dover, Delaware. He attended Mathew Memorial Baptist Church in Washington, DC, where he was baptized in 2002.

Leon Gibbs served his country in the United States Army from 1954-1957 and was honorably discharged. He later retired from the DC Department of Corrections in 1975. Leon was an exceptional Brick Mason and Businessman who went on to start his own home improvement business which lasted for 20+years. He later retired to Dover, Delaware where he kept busy by working part time as a security officer and maintaining his home along with his loving wife. He enjoyed spending time with family, fine dining, sports, music, motorcycles and luxury cars.

Leon was the youngest of all of his siblings. He is survived by his wife of 47 years, Lillian Maxine Gibbs and his children, Leon George Gibbs, Jr.; Franklin Gibbs; Johnathan Gibbs; Alfreda Gibbs; David Hughes (Angie); Michael Maurice Gibbs (Leslie); and Michelle Maxine Gibbs. His grandchildren, Reginald Gibbs; Jasmin Hughes; Michael Jones; Alisha Gibbs; Marquette Jones; Alan Josey; Mikel Gibbs; Monica Gibbs; Camron Hughes and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and family.

Leon Gibbs held a special place in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
