

Leona Jackson

May 31, 1935 - July 10, 2018

Leona Jackson went home to the Lord peacefully on Tuesday, July 10, 2018, in Glendale, Arizona, after a short illness. She was formerly of Dover, Delaware. She was born on May 31, 1935, to the late William and Helen Durham.

Leona attended Fork Branch Elementary School and Cheswold School. She was employed at Playtex, Loumars and Jim's Café. On December 29, 1952, she married the love of her life, Franklin Julius "Jude" Jackson and they were married 63 years. From this union, they had six children.

Leona enjoyed spending time with her husband and family. She enjoyed travelling to Niagara Falls, Virginia, Arizona, Florida and other places. Her hobbies were reading and collecting ceramic owls.

Leona was preceded in death by her parents, William and Helen Durham; her husband, Franklin "Jude" Jackson, and her twin sister, Iona "Tiny" Durham.

She is survived by her children, Tony Durham (Jan), Teresa Morgan, Frankie Jackson, who lived with her, Gary Jackson (Helena), Mark Jackson (Mildred), Wanda Pascuzzo (Rob); nine grandchildren; sixteen great-grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild; sisters, Delores Harmon (Doug), Peggy Durham (Glenny), and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Dear Family,
Grief can be so hard, may your family find strength in God's promise at (Isaiah 25: 8) that soon "he will swallow up death forever". You have my deepest sympathy.
