

LeRon Todd

February 19, 1989 - October 5, 2014

Leron AJ Todd, affectionately known as “MooMoo”, was born on Sunday, February 19, 1989, in Baltimore, Maryland. He passed away on Sunday morning, October 5, 2014, at the age 25.

“His musical name was known as "Mu-Sheek Da CEO".

MooMoo attended Cambridge South Dorchester High School, Cambridge, Maryland. He enjoyed special moments with his children, family and friends, and loved reading the Daily Bread.

MooMoo leaves to cherish his memory his parents: Leroy Todd of Cambridge, Maryland & Hattie Wade of Baltimore, Maryland; step-grandfather, Arvil Johnson of East New Market, Maryland; four (4) children: LeAsia Todd, Da'Nasia Todd, Leron Todd, Jr., and & Da'Mari Todd all of Cambridge, Maryland; the mother of his children, Dashell Haines of Cambridge, Maryland; five (5) brothers: Leshawn Todd & James Lee of Baltimore, Maryland, Valeza Reed of Pennsylvania, Joshua Wade of California and Leroy Williams of North Carolina; three (3) sisters: Dollie Jean Reed of Laurel, Maryland, Lequia Hooper of Madison, Maryland & Caroline (Will) Rodwell of Baltimore, Maryland; three (3) step-brothers: Wayne Demby, Michael Johnson & Tyron Camper and their mother, Sheila Camper, all of Cambridge, Maryland; three (3) aunts: Bonnie (Loyd) Edwards of Church Creek, Maryland, Beverly (Michael) Robinson of Cambridge, Maryland & William (Sean) Cunningham of South Carolina, three (3) uncles: George Washington Wade, Arvel Johnson, Jr. & Andre (Gloria) Todd all of Baltimore, Maryland; three (3) great aunts: Elise (Harold) Stanley of Church Creek, Maryland, Berdina (Hayman) Ross of Cambridge, Maryland & Mary Chester of Cambridge, Maryland; one (1) great uncle, William Chester of Woolford, Maryland, and a host of great-great aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. Leron also leaves to cherish his memories, a special friend whom he called "Mother", Monique Wilson. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandmother, Barbara Johnson, maternal grandmother, Betty Wade and maternal grandfather, Ledell Bost.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of LeRon Todd, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.