“ To the Family, Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. Let me tell you of my favorites. If you are grieving, maybe this will also help you. “I will change their mourning into exultation, and I will comfort them and make them rejoice away from their grief.” Jeremiah 31:13-17.

“ To The Bailey Family: The faithful man Job asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." (Job 14:14,15) Job knew what it was to suffer hardship, pain and sickness. During his darkest hours he made the above statement to his God, Jehovah. He knew that although he might die, his God would resurrect him in due time. May the resurrection hope also bring you comfort during this time of great sorrow. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss.
