

Leroy Hankerson

January 31, 1951 - September 22, 2020

Leroy Hankerson was born on January 31, 1951 to the late Leroy Taylor, Sr. and Susie Hordge and his stepfather, Charles Hordge. He departed this life at the age of sixty-nine (69) on Tuesday, September 22, 2020.

Leroy received his education in Wicomico County. He and his wife, Wanda, were bus contractors for Wicomico County and he also held various jobs including Expert House Movers, J.V. Wells and Shore Transit. Additionally, Leroy served in the United States Navy and was a member of Zion Methodist Church where he sang in the Men's Choir and was very active.

Leroy, known to some as "Kilroy," was a "Gentle Giant" who was loving and always there to help anyone in need. He loved his family and grandchildren and was a true example of a protector and provider. He loved outdoors and to play jokes on many. It wasn't Leroy if he wasn't yelling while doing something outside.

Cherished memories will be remembered by: his daughters, Audrey, Keisha and Vanelda and one son, Rudy; grandchildren—Dontreze, Zhamel, Deja, Anajiah, Abreya, Davion, Shaylyne, Tazmyne, Trevon and Jaylen; great grandchildren, Journee, Zhamel, Jr., Zoey and Cataleya; siblings, Anna (David), Alberta (Allen), Cynthia (Lindsay), Ida, Sarah (Horner), Leroy, Sr. (Cammille), Theodora (David), David, Lonnie (Krystal) Magdelene, II,
