“ I am truly sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. There are many words of comfort I would like to say; however, it has often been found that the best source of comfort is found in God's word. God is aware of your pain. "He is healing the broken hearted ones, And is binding up their painful spots." Psalms 147:3 Death was never meant to be (Genesis 2:17). Therefore, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8 May the hope of being reunited with your deceased loved one bring you a measure of comfort and joy.

“ I am sorry for the passing of your loved one; please accept my sincere sympathy. While you are grieving your loss, I hope you can find some comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection(Acts 24:15) when those who have fallen asleep in death, will be raised up and restored back to life, with the hope of eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed promise is fulfilled and you are reunited with your loved one again, may GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Dear Wilson Family

I am writing to extend my deepest condolences on the loss of your family member. In the Bible we find that it was never God's intention for any of us to die. Ecclesiastes 3:11 makes mention how God has put eternity in our hearts. Why did he do this? Merely to frustrate us? That is unthinkable. On the contrary, God promises us that there will come a victory over death. The Bible repeatedly speaks about the elimination of death and God's promise of everlasting life. As found at Titus 1:2, "We have the hope of the everlasting life that God, who cannot lie, promised long ago." Very soon death will be a thing of the past by means of God's Kingdom in which we pray for at Matthew 6:9,10. Once more I am so sorry for your loss.
