

Lillian Mildred Morris (Dickerson)

September 16, 1927 - October 26, 2019

Lillian Mildred Morris, was born on Friday, September 16, 1927. She was the daughter of the late Norman Dickerson, Sr., and Madeline Dickerson. She departed this life on Saturday, October 26, 2019, at the Delmar Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, Delmar, Delaware.

Lillian received her education at the Greenwood School, in Greenwood, Delaware. She was unable to complete her education, due to the sudden death of her mother. She stepped in to care for her younger siblings.

Lillian worked as a seamstress at local garment factories, for years, until those businesses closed. She worked at Playtex for a while through K.S.I. (Kent Sussex Industries), and also worked with the Foster Grandparent Program until her retirement.

Lillian was a talker and was always ready to give a sermon on how good the Lord is. She was a devoted mother, who instilled the importance of having faith in God. She loved the Lord and would praise Him through the good and bad times. Her favorite book in the Bible was the book of Psalms.

Lillian was a member of St. Paul A.M.E. Church, in Harrington, Delaware, for many years. She was later baptized and became a member of the Mt. Carmel Seventh-Day Adventist Church in Harrington, Delaware. She attended the Denton Church of Free Seventh-Day Adventists until her health began to fail.

Lillian was preceded in death by her sister, Viola Dickerson Purnell and brother, Norman Dickerson, Jr.

Lillian leaves to mourn, one sister, Yvonne Perry (Isaac); son, Jeffrey C. Dickerson; granddaughter, who was the apple of her eye, Keyana Anderson-Dickerson; sister-in-law, Doris Dickerson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She also leaves to cherish her memory, Selma Anderson Nichols and Vondolear Jackson, who were like her daughters.
