

Lillian M. Stewart

April 1, 1923 - July 13, 2016

Lillian M.C. Stewart was born on April 1, 1923 in Masses Mills, Virginia to Elizabeth Christian Fisher. She was raised in Steelton, PA by her uncle and aunt and it was also where she attended grade school as well as high school. She was baptized as a Jehovah's Witness in the early 1950s and throughout her life continued to talk about Jehovah and his kingdom as well as his blessings to others. She was a nurturing mother to her seven children and was also a wonderful homemaker. She enjoyed various crafts. She particularly loved needlework and shared her creations with the family and friends. She worked in private homes, in child care and at restaurants.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 46 years, Winfield Stewart; her parents; three children, Paul and Phillip Morris and Elizabeth Hightower; two sisters; one brother; a grandson, Stephen Hightower and Rita Taylor.

Lillian is survived by two sons, Harold Morris (Carol) and Larry Henderson (Sarah); two daughters, Barbara Saunders (Tyrone) and Cynthia Kennedy; brother, Joseph Christian; 17 grandchildren and many great-grandchildren; former son-in-law, Henry Hightower; Reynold and Family; and a host of other family and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. I remember Sister Stewart's beautiful smile and the love she had for our God, Jehovah. She will be truly missed, but we look forward to seeing her again when the dead are resurrected. (John 5:28&29) Please look forward to that time and may your entire family be comforted and blessed at this time.
