September 15, 1964 - September 21, 2024

LINDA'S JOURNEY

Linda Marie Brown, a resident of Salisbury, Maryland, was born on September 15, 1964 in Salisbury, Maryland to James Brown, Sr. (deceased) and Callie Brown. Linda departed this life at her home on Saturday, September 21, 2024.

Linda was raised in Allen, Maryland and was educated in the Wicomico County School system. She was a graduate of Parkside High's class of "1982" and received her Associate's degree from Wor-Wic Community College. She was an employee of the State of Maryland for over thirty (30) years.

Linda accepted Christ at an early age. She was a Deacon of "Rapture Ready Ministries." You would often hear of her sharing stories of staying with her grandmother and attending church with her. Linda would often enjoy pastimes of traveling, reading books, spending holidays with family, talking on the phone with her good friends, strolling through stores talking to people for what seemed like HOURS, as well as enjoying a meal out, and most significantly her annual trip to the "Brown Family Reunion."

Linda was always ready for whoever had need of her whether it was assisting the church with events, being a limo driver for the "Golden Girls," a team/band mom, a personal sitter, a ham extraordinaire, a beloved auntie or bonus mom.

And let's not forget hearing Linda's favorite word, "Foolishness."

Linda is lovingly survived by: her two sons, Dionte' Cotton and Jayson White, both of Salisbury, MD; one grandson, Jordan Cotton of Philadelphia, PA and one granddaughter, Amirah Zinn of Kaiserslautern, Germany; her mother, Callie Brown of Allen, MD; one sister, Carla Brown of Salisbury, MD; one godsister, Adrience "Lisa" (Keith) Elmore, Sr. of Princess Anne, MD; one godson, Keith "Booder" (KeAsia) Elmore of ; two special nieces, NaTasha Roberts of Allen, MD and Kerrah Brown of Salisbury, MD; five nephews, Rashad Boone and Marcus Robinson, both of Atlanta, GA, Tyler (Calissa) Smith of Hampton, VA, Tre'von Hayward of Chester, PA and Devonte' Brown of Salisbury, MD; two special uncles, Charlie (Hettie) Williams of Deerfield Beach, FL and Therman (Barbara) Brown of Allen, MD and a host of great nieces, great nephews, aunts, uncles, sister-cousins, cousins, childhood friends and close friends.

In addition to her father, James Brown, Sr., Linda was preceded in death by her brother, James Brown Jr., one godson, Gregory Tilghman, Jr., her maternal and paternal grandparents, as well as other aunts, uncles, and cousins.

“ Lynn I never thought I would be posting this in the obituary section. We have been friends for years and to know that you are gone it hurts but God needed you more than we did. I pray God will bring comfort to your children, your mom and Carla. My heart is broken but I can hear you saying now don't cry over me keep it moving. I will always remember you and love you and remember the fun times we had.

“Lin, words can't express how I'm feeling without you here. Jimmy hasn't been gone two years and now you're gone to join him. I'm going to do my best to hold it down with mom along with the grands. We got her. So, rest on my dear sister, until we meet again. I love you and miss you, Lin. Lord , give me strength

Lin words can not express how I'm feeling. You open yourself up to me from day one I moved next to you. You were the best neighbour anyone could ever ask for. I'm really going to miss our talks in the yard for hours on hours. How we looked out for each other homes when we would take a vacation. The love shown towards our families. I'm going to miss you my neighbor. I will continue to check on your boys. I'm praying for strength for your mom,sister and the entire family. You take you rest sis I'm truly going to miss you 🥹💔

Lin, I'm still in disbelief, it's like a dream. I want to thank you for your genuine friendship shown to me down throughout the years. We didn't talk everyday, months would go by, but we never missed a beat when we connected with one another. I'm so sorry we didn't get a chance see one another one last time. You were strong in your faith and I know you are at peace. I will forever cherish our friendship and our time spent together. I'm truly going to miss you, but one day we shall see each other again. My sincere condolences and love are extended to her sons, mother, sister and extended family.
