

Linda Jacobs

September 28, 1954 - January 21, 2019

Obituary

On January 21, 2019, Linda Mary Frances Jacobs, at the age of sixty-four (64), went home to be with the Lord. God decided Linda had suffered enough. He reached out, touched her and said, "Peace be thine", calling her home and adding her to His beautiful flower garden. Linda was at peace. She said, "When the Lord was ready for her, she was ready to go."

Linda was born on September 28, 1954 to the late Mary Watts– Jacobs and Samuel Jacobs, Sr. She was raised in San Domingo, Maryland. She attended Sharptown Elementary in Sharptown, Maryland and Mardela High School in Mardela Springs, Maryland. Linda was a dedicated member of Zion United Methodist Church and spent much of her time enjoying her close family and friends as well as studying the Bible.

Linda's work history began with Delmar Pants Factory, Campbell Soup, Co. and Anchorage Nursing Home. Her last job was as unit secretary and Certified Nursing Assistant at Peninsula Regional Medical Center, until her health failed. Linda worked hard, loved her family, loved her community and loved the Lord. She lived a simple life and although her health declined over the years, she made an effort to never miss precious family moments and special events. She always smiled and made you feel everything would be ok.

Even until the end, she never complained about anything. We are grateful to God for allowing us time to say goodbye and know we have truly lost an angel.

She leaves to mourn: one daughter and son in law Tammy Jacobs– Boston and Warren Boston of Salisbury, Maryland; two sisters, Wanda Thompson (Ivy) of Mardela Springs, Maryland and Nina Bounds (Broderick ) of Glen Burnie, Maryland; two brothers, Samuel Jacobs, Jr. (Carrie) of Salisbury, Maryland and Marshall Jacobs (Matilde) of Hampton, Virginia; three grandchildren, Jeremy Russell and Bryan Jacobs, both of Salisbury, Maryland and Essence Jacobs of Baltimore, Maryland; three great grandchildren, Ziayla Russell, Jeremy Russell, Jr. and Carter Jacobs, all of Salisbury, Maryland and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by Melvin Brummell and Steven Jacobs.

“ To the Family, I’m so sorry for your loss. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Then he continued: He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living. I know that those words mean that those retained in God’s memory will return in the resurrection. ”

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Yes, Christians have a responsibility to help one another. Elders in particular, but also all in the congregation, should be concerned about one another’s welfare and offer kind, Scriptural counsel when needed. (Philippians 2:4) Of course, such counsel should not be dictatorial or harsh. Neither should it give the impression of trying to control someone else’s life. Rather, it should be Scripturally based and seasoned with salt. (Colossians 4:6) Everyone needs help on occasion, and timely counsel, salted with kindness and encouragement, will help all of us to continue on the roadway to everlasting life.

“ To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing of Linda. Please find comfort in the words of Isaiah 41:10, " Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you, I will really hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness."

“ My sincere condolences to family and friends at this time of loss. There are Bible passages that comforts me greatly. Jesus promised he will resurrect our loved ones. John 5: 28 and 29. When earth becomes the place of peace Jesus talked about at Matthew 5:5, then we will live the promise of everlasting peace. Psalm 37:29. We have a promise from God at Revelation 21:3,4. There will be no more death and pain. There is more comfort to be read about in God's Word, the Bible concerning the resurrection and reuniting with our loved ones. May God's peace be yours. Isaiah 26:4.
