“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ Dear Family, though your hearts are heavy with pain and sorrow right now, over the loss of your dear loved one, but know that our heavenly Father did not leave you without hope. God did not create mankind to suffer the sting of death. He lovingly provided hope of one day being reunited with our loved ones. Acts 24:15; Revelation 21:4; Hosea 13:14. I sincerely express my deepest sympathy. It

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this comfort from family and friends is appreciated. Comfort and hope from God's Word, the Bible also provides much to help us endure through our grief. Almighty God promises that one day his beloved son, Jesus Christ is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). What a glorious day that will surely be! The Bible reveals to us that ALL of God's promises over the 1000's of years have come true. So, this hope is a sure hope we can confidently look forward to. Until that day may you find comfort and strength to cope with all of life's anxieties (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
