“ Linda,
I cannot even believe I'm typing this or the tragedy surrounding you being taken from us. Please know that your dad did not want this type of burial for you. I'm not even sure how or who authorized your to be buried in Potter's field. Especially, when your dad was still living. He was recovering at the hospital and I had spoken to him several times. His wishes were for me to help get your Mom, you, and little Michael so that you all could be buried/set free together. Unfortunately, he passed away prior to completing all the paperwork. It took my mom awhile to locate you and little Michael and now it's too late. You will be buried in just a few short minutes in Potter's field. You or Michael do not deserve that type of burial and I'm so extremely sorry that I cannot put a stop to it. I will always remember you as reminding me of Wonder Woman with your dark hair and how tall you were. I'll remember all the memories we made in the Elsmere townhouse with KISS posters on your walls. The smell of ivory soap will forever remind me of you. Our walks along the train tracks and how my flip flop got stuck one time to the point we had to leave it there. The sweet princess like voice that you had and your love for animals just like your dad. I know life wasn't always easy for you but I also know how pure your love was for your family. I am so incredibly sorry I am not able to honor your dad's wishes.
Rest in Peace Beautiful,
Love Always,
Shanon
