

Linda Ann Wharton

March 8, 1956 - May 30, 2020

Obituary

Linda Ann Wharton, daughter of the late Hurbert L., Sr. and Florence M. Wharton, residents of Girdletree, Maryland, was born in Salisbury, Maryland on March 8, 1956. Early Saturday morning, the angel of the Lord met Linda where she laid and gave her rest.

Linda was formally educated in Worcester County. She attended Woodbridge for Secretary's trade school in Salisbury, Maryland. She worked as a domestic worker in Salisbury, Maryland, until she became disabled.

Linda's favorite pastimes were trash talking, shopping, cooking, cracking jokes, enjoying good food, listening to music, dancing, and reading her spiritual word. Linda will be missed by her loved ones and remembered for her witty jokes, contagious laugh, her bluntness and as a mother who tried her very best.

She leaves to cherish loving memories: her three children, Garrick L. Wharton, Sr. of Salisbury, Maryland, Rashawn K. (Carolyn) Wharton of Girdletree, Maryland and Kenya P. Wharton of Fruitland, Maryland; six grandchildren, Victoria M. Yanez, (aka Toe), with whom she shared a special bond that they both held onto dearly, Esteban Yanez, Garrick Wharton, Jr, Byron (Tre'ona) Wharton, Antonio Jackson, Jr. and Gavin Wharton; nine great-grandchildren; one brother, Earl (Cathy) Wharton and one sister, Beatrice Wharton, both of Snow Hill, Maryland and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and close friends.

Linda was preceded in death by four brothers, Hubert L. Wharton, Jr., Ernest L. Wharton, Kenneth L. Wharton, Sr. and Charles Wharton and two sisters, Marie Collick and Mamie Waples.

“We were never here to stay, we are all on borrowed time. Let everything that has breath Praise the Lord and rejoice in good tidings for death brings new life.”

I Love You Mom

In my heart and thoughts, you will stay.
I never thought I would be saying goodbye so early.
I prayed for your spirit and I'm trusting God,
that He will continue to cover you as you rest in His Holy arms.
Sleep well Mommy. You will be greatly missed.

Love Kenya, Garrick and Rashawn
