

Linnie Richardson Jr.

May 1, 1932 - October 5, 2017

On October 5, 2017, Linnie Richardson, Jr. quietly departed this life to go home to be with his Heavenly Father. He was born in Salisbury, Maryland on May 1, 1932, and was the son of the late Linnie Richardson, Sr. and Virgie Chandler Richardson of Eden, Maryland. He attended Wicomico County Public Schools and graduated from Salisbury High School in 1951. He served in the United States Army for several years, while stationed in Korea.

Mr. Richardson became a truck driver after his military duties. His work experiences included trucking in Baltimore, Chicago, New Jersey and Maryland. He knew so much about traveling through his experiences and was called upon to give family members directions when they traveled. He drove trucks locally for Joseph Hock Trucking, J.S.C. Hauling, Inc. and M.V.W Trucking. He retired in 2014 from driving a dump truck. He was a member of Teamster's Union Local 311.

Linnie was a very quiet person, who needed to really get to know you before he started talking. He loved his family and would do anything he could to help. His favorite topic was truck driving. He often shared stories of his career in trucking with anyone who would listen. He was a member of the Salisbury High School Alumni Association.

Linnie Richardson, Jr. leaves to cherish precious memories: two sons, Ronald (Kathy) Richardson of Salisbury, Maryland and Dexter (Marilyn) of Elizabeth City, North Carolina; three grandchildren, Temeka Richardson and Roni Lee Richardson, both of Salisbury, Maryland and Melinda Duarte of Durham, North Carolina; four great grandchildren, Raekwon D. McCarter, Aaliya McCarter, Tykira Osborne and Amyria Osborne; two great-great grandchildren, Jaceon Gross and Nyla Gross; a very special cousin, Dr. Geri Mason; an adopted sister, Mrs. Thelma Tanner-Greene and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ I’m so sad to hear about the death of Cousin Linnie. I would try to reach him periodically over the last few years. I still have the last voicemail he left me on my phone. He called me “Stuff”. I met him when I went to school at UMES. I’m sad because I wanted to talk to him so many times and know how he was but I didn’t have a way of contacting him outside of his phone numbers. He had a huge heart. I love him and miss him already.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our belated condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28,29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but that you please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are sincerely with all of you.

“What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget”

“My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“Grief can be hard, may your family find strength in God promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”?—Rom. 12:15.
