“ I recently found out about Lisa's passing. I have so many great grade school & high school memories (sleeping over, pajama parties, shopping, dancing & going to the beach together). My deepest condolences to the family. She was such a special friend who I will never forget. I am so sorry.

“ I was surprised and very sad to learn that Lisa passed away. I went to elementary and high school with Lisa. She was a warm and special person, upbeat and full of life —always smiling. My deepest sympathies to Lisa's family. May she Rest In Peace

“ I was shocked and saddened when I was notified that Lisa (I always called her skittles due to her tattoos being so colorful much like her personality) had passed away, and even today as I type this... still feels surreal and very dull (and anyone who knew her knows that she hates things being dull). She was a very strong woman who inspite of anything that she may have been going through, she was always helping out others. she was and still is a wonderful spirit. and as she now flies high from this world, I hope that her spirit is at pace and happy. I love you and miss you friend.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
