

Lois Virginia Bunting

April 6, 1933 - February 16, 2018

Lois Virginia Bunting, the beloved daughter of the late Dorothy and Ernest Bailey and the late William Wilson was born on April 6, 1933 in Modest Town, VA. She went peacefully to her Savior on Friday, February 16, 2018 at Deer's Head Hospital, Coastal Hospice on the Lake in Salisbury, MD.

She was educated in the Accomack County public school system, graduating from Mary N. Smith High School. At an early age, she was baptized and became a member of the First Baptist Church in Mappsville, VA under the pastorship of the late Rev. Dr. M.T. Boone. She later joined the St. James A.M.E. Zion Church in Salisbury, MD, where she was a faithful and dedicated member, serving as an Usher for many years until her health declined. She was also very active in the Brown Bag Ministry.

Lois was united in Holy Matrimony to the late John R. Bunting. From this union, God blessed them with three children – Diane, Denise and Marcus.

She was employed at the Campbell Soup Company for over forty years. She will certainly be remembered by her coworkers there, as she was known for "keeping everybody straight". Outspoken and to-the-point, she would give guidance and advice to whomever needed it – young or old.

After retirement, Lois enjoyed spending time with her family, shopping and traveling. Lois was very sharp dresser no matter what the season or the occasion! Detailed from head to toe! We shall certainly miss seeing those beautiful church hats and matching outfits.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband John R. Bunting; sisters Missouri Byrd and Anna Johnson; brothers Irving and Robert Bailey.

We are so very thankful for her life and her legacy. The fond memories we now have will forever dwell within our hearts. She leaves to cherish her children – Diane Hudson, Denise Bunting(Dana) and Marcus Bunting, Sr. (Shanika); grandchildren Shavonne Booker(Eric), Christie Williams, David Williams (Rachel), Devon Bunting, Jamar Wilson, Marquita Bunting, Marcus Bunting, Jr., and Marquez Bunting; thirteen great-grandchildren; brother Herbert Wilson (Shirley); sister Margie Wilson; three god-daughters, Lazette Young, Leslie Larkins, Heather Evans; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ May God be with your dear family as you endure the loss of your mother. I know that words can never take away the pain that you feel at this difficult time. God knows the many tears that you cry. May you be comforted by the many promises that He has made for the future Paradise and to reunite you together again with your dear mother. You're in my prayers. (Acts 24:15; Rev 21:3, 4)

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Dear Family,

We want you to know that we mourn the loss of your Mother with you, and rejoice in knowing that she is with the God she so lovingly served. Ms. Lois was a tremendous beacon at St. James over many, many years. She encouraged younger women to be a good wife and mother, and by example, a dutiful Christian. God Bless you for obeying the scripture to Honor your Mother and your Father. You did both! Love and prayers, Sharon Donohue Morris and Family

“ We would like for you to know how deeply sadden we are for the lost of your mother. She was a very dear and sweet person and we had gotten close to her. She was and honest and understood whenever you approached her with a problem. She loved hearing the Mass Choir sing for she would put herself into it along with us. She is really going to be missed. We will miss her jolliness and joking she always did. May God keep His arms wrapped around you all letting you know that you are not alone. Please except our condolences and feel free to call on us at anytime. Clinton and Doris

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We send this condolence with the sure hope the Bible provides all of us at difficult times like this.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). As death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove from this earth FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious day that will surely be! It's a reality and a sure hope that we can trust in because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2).

My wife and I sincerely encourage you to look up and meditate on these noted scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). You will surely be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope our Grand Creator has in store for us (John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
