“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I am very sorry for your loss; please accept my deepest sympathy. While you are grieving the passing of your loved one; I hope you will find comfort in the blessings that will take place, when God’s Kingdom comes (Matthew 6:10). Death will be no more(Isaiah 25:8) and no family will have to say good-bye to their loved ones, because Jesus promise there will be a resurrection (Acts 15:24)for those who are now sleeping in death, being restored back to life on the new Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed time unfolds, may GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.
