

Lorenzo Harmon Jr.

December 24, 1926 - September 24, 2018

Lorenzo Orlando Harmon, Jr., son of the late Beatrice and Lorenzo Harmon, Sr., was born on Friday, December 24, 1926, in Wattsville, Virginia. He departed this life on Monday, September 24, 2018, at his home of 60 years, in Millsboro, Delaware. He was 91 years of age.

He was educated in the Virginia Public School System. “Junior“, as all his family and friends called him, was a very outgoing and energetic person who loved to spend time with his family and friends. His greatest joy in life was to make others laugh. He loved his daughter Jeraldine “Jeri” and son Curtis, and would do anything for his family regardless of the situation or circumstance. He loved making homemade ice cream for his grandchildren. He also enjoyed driving the bus for all the church trips. He was a member of St. John 2nd Baptist Church, Millsboro, Delaware.

Junior retired from Allen Foods in Harbeson, Delaware after 40 years of service, as a truck driver. While working at Allen Foods, he started his own company “Harmon and Harmon, Ltd.”, which he ran for many, many years. He was a Weighmaster and had several crews that caught chickens for Allen Foods.

Junior was a lifelong “Los Angeles Dodger” fan and watched “The Price is Right” daily. He loved traveling by air, water and land, as well as helping his friends and his church family. No task was too great or small.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ethel Harmon; father, Lorenzo Harmon, Sr., and mother, Beatrice Harmon.

He leaves to cherish fond memories his devoted daughter, Jeraldine "Jeri" Harmon of Maplewood, New Jersey; son, Curtis Harmon and Helen, of Georgetown, Delaware; two sisters, Winnie Finey and Helen Davis, both of Salisbury, Maryland; one sister-in-law, Beulah Cooper of Seaford, Delaware; six grandchildren, Curtis Harmon of Stanford, Connecticut, Rodney Harmon of Wilmington, Delaware, Gerald Harmon and his wife, Ebonie, of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Cheryl Harmon of Delmar, Delaware, Felicia White of Millsboro, Delaware; and Quanzel Fullman of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; nine great-grandchildren; eight great-great grandchildren; a cousin, Elizabeth Harmon; two friends, Ms. Billie Showell and George Bishop, and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ My condolences to the family. Please note the words of Psalms 90:10, “The span of our life is 70 years, or 80 if one is especially strong. But they are filled with trouble and sorrow; they quickly pass by, and away we fly.” Life is short. Lorenzo lived to reach 91 years which shows how mighty he was. Eternal life in Paradise awaits him. (Luke 23:43)

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. \r\n\r\nAs recorded in the Bible, God\u2019s only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It\u2019s a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).\r\n\r\nMy wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.\r\n

“ my sincerest condolence.\r\nI would like to offer my sincere condolences for the loss of Lorenzo Harmon Jr. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41: 10). I hope these thoughts comfort you
