

Lori Hillman

September 23, 1961 - July 22, 2020

Lori Wells-Hillman was born on Thursday, September 23, 1971 at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland. She suddenly transitioned from earth to her heavenly home on Wednesday, July 22, 2020.

The daughter of Phyllis Davis (Bob Davis) and the late Allen Wells, Lori received her formal education in Wicomico County public schools. She attended James M. Bennett High School in Salisbury, Maryland.

For a number of years, Lori was employed by Market Street Deli in Pocomoke City, Maryland and Home Health Care in various locations. As a member of Mount Carmel Baptist Church in Princess Anne, Maryland, Lori was loved by all and looked forward to being in the service of the Lord.

In her spare time, Lori loved going to the beach, spending time with her daughter and feeding her birds. She also loved cooking, shopping and gardening. Lori was one of the kindest, most caring and compassionate individuals you could ever meet. She would go out of her way just to meet the needs of others, often putting their needs before her own.

Precious memories of Lori's life will be cherished by: her daughter, Whitney Roundtree; her parents, Phyllis and Bob Davis; her sister, Robin Wells Gass and brother, Dan Jones; nieces, Megan Benton, Ivy Gass McIntyre (Craig), Billie Gass van Zoolingen (Micheil), Ashley Wells and Bethany Wells DeLaughter (Scott); nephews, Currin Gass (Becky) and Billy (Barbie Hinman); one aunt, Drusilla Ennis; uncles, Jim Wells (deceased), Ron Wells, Harley McCabe and Ebe McCabe, Jr.; special friend, Shanay and her children, Dalonte Abbott and Maleah Augustin and a host of other relatives and friends.
