

Louise Longshore

March 22, 1932 - December 18, 2019

Louise R. Longshore was born on March 22, 1932, in New Hope, Randolph County, Alabama, to the late Guy Louis and Sallie Fannie Robertson. Louise was married to the late Amos Longshore and together they raised five children. In addition to her parents, Louise was preceded in death by her brothers, Abraham Lincoln Robertson and Eddie Will Bailey and sister, Naomi Jeannette Grier.

Louise graduated from Randolph County Training School in Roanoke, Alabama, where she received the honor of class salutatorian. Later in life, she earned an Associate Degree in Psychology from Wesley College in Dover, Delaware. She was employed at Kraft General Foods, as a Personnel Administrator, where she was well respected by the employees for the services she provided in the performance of her duties. She was an avid reader, loved sewing and enjoyed selling Avon products for over 20 years. She loved to travel and many times drove alone from Dover to Alabama to see her family.

Louise accepted Christ at an early age, joining Canaan Baptist Church in Wedowee, Alabama. As a military wife, she traveled extensively with her family before settling in Dover, where her husband served at Dover Air Force Base. She became a member of Whatcoat United Methodist Church. As a devoted member, she served well in many activities including: The United Methodist Women, Pastor/Parish Relations, Finance Committee, Clothes Closet, Caring Circle Leader and volunteered as secretary. She was also honored as Outstanding Woman of the Year for 2014. A little known fact to most, is that during 1968 and 1969, Mrs. Longshore worked diligently with others to establish needed services for the seniors in the community. She was a Co-Founding Member of the Board for "Modern Maturity Center".

Louise is survived by her sons, Stephen Longshore (Liza) New Castle, DE, Connie Longshore, Dover, DE and Roy Longshore, Reno NV; daughters, Jeannette Longshore, Dover, DE and Veronica Guinn, Acworth, GA.; seven grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
