LOUVINIA PHILLIPS' HOMEGOING CELEBRATION

Louvinia Edna Schoolfield Teagle Phillips, lovingly known as Mama Lou, was born to the late Mattie Schoolfield and Robert Teagle in Stockton, MD on December 12, 1920. At the amazing age of 103, she peacefully departed this life and received her eternal reward on November 4, 2024 at her home with her daughter.

She was raised by her aunt and uncle, the late Hester and Isaac Teagle, and grew up with her first cousins. Martha Bivens, Elizabeth Robinson (twins), Dorothy Spence, Florence Purnell (twins), Emma Burton and Fred Purnell who were more like siblings (preceded her in death) as well as Wanda Melton (Harlan) of Capitol Heights, MD. While she attended school, she taught her "brother" Fred Purnell, who was unable to attend because of farm duties, to read and write. Mama Lou received her education in the Worcester County School system having had her classes in the historical Sturgis One Room School. In her young life, she was an avid athlete participating in volleyball, running track and holding the position of catcher on her softball team.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Oscar Mason and was blessed to expand her extended family with children who preceded her in death, Esther Bagwell, Ella (Snooks) Schoolfield and Charles (Hoss) Collins.

She was again united in holy matrimony by the late Reverend Isaac Jenkins, Sr. to Howard Phillips who preceded her in death after six months of marital bliss.

Louvinia began her Christian walk at an early age and joined Macedonia Baptist Church in Pocomoke, MD under the leadership of Reverend R. L. Jackson, Bishop Isaac Jenkins, Sr. and now Pastor Jermaine C. Scott, Sr. She became President of the Gospel Choir and held the position for seventy years. She was the last surviving member of the "original" Gospel Choir who have now welcomed her home in celebration with the Heavenly Gospel Choir. She was also a member of the Missionary Circle, Back Home Club and Pastor's Aid. Louvinia was an active, dedicated and faithful servant until God called her home. She celebrated and rejoiced in church the day before her passing.

After living and working in Delaware and New York, providing care for babies and their families, she returned to Pocomoke City where she became a certified foster parent through Wor-Wic Tech Community College. She mentored and was a foster parent for over twenty-five years. She also became a certified nutritionist and was employed with the SHORE UP! Inc. Project Head Start beginning in May 1971 where she made meals for generations of children. Before her retirement from SHORE UP! Inc., Louvinia had been employed by them for nearly thirty years. One neighbor shared the sentiment, "Mama Lou raised a whole town."

She was an active member with the Pocomoke Senior Center. She enjoyed making blankets and pillows for the less fortunate who often included the homeless, babies and seniors. "Mama Lou," who was affectionately given this moniker by her "niece" Evette Bivens-Curtis, would visit nursing homes regularly to hand out lap blankets or just to sit and talk with a resident who might not receive any visitors. While she was able to drive, she assisted others in getting to church, doctor's appointments and even helped with shopping. She was a quiet person who ministered in her own way. She was slow to accept praise, never wanting to draw attention.

Louvinia leaves cherished memories with: her two daughters, Donna Belote of Pocomoke, MD and Elizabeth Phillips of Fort Washington, MD and three grandsons, James Layne, Tyrone Crippen and Jarron Crippen. She had an amazing bond with her nieces, Evette Bivens-Curtis (Walter) of Westover, MD and Flora Ann Priester of Pocomoke, MD, cousin, Malinda Tull of Unionville, MD, and her play daughter, Elizabeth Marshall of Pocomoke City, MD and a host of relatives and friends. In addition to previously mentioned loved ones, four brothers preceded her in death: Levin Teagle, Philip Teagle, Robert Teagle and Benjamin Teagle.

The late Bishop Isaac Jenkins, Sr. best described the services of Mama Lou by stating, "She is unshakable and remains faithful to all that she has dedicated herself to and is a role model for the ladies of our day."

“ I chose to light a rose candle in memory of Miss Louvinia Edna Phillip s, because she is one of the rarest flowers you'll ever find, she was a one of a kind. I can remember her as far back as 1971 when I was just lil child spending my entire summers with my auntie, which was one of her good friends. I remember going shopping with them, church with them, out to eat, I even would go to work with them. For a long time after I had move from pocomoke I didn't see her, one Sunday we had an afternoon church service and who did I see, yes Miss Louvinia, she never forgot who I was, she gave me a hug with that beautiful smile I always saw her wear. I have never seen her without that contagious smile of hers, a smile that could light up the world, it was so pretty and bright, I think she helped the Lord create the sun and the moon, shining so bright. The Lord was surely good to her and now she has received her reward that she so much deserve. I'm not gonna say goodbye but I will say , "see you later" my rare and precious rose, every time the sun shine I'll think of you and your beautiful smile shinning down on us from heaven.

“ Mama Lou was a beautiful, generous, and loving woman of God. Oftentimes, my dad spoke of her and how she helped Grandma (Ethel Mason) take care of (raise) him and his siblings. Years ago, all of them lived in Rabbit Gnaw (Stockton). Those memories remain in my heart. Mama Lou was a 'Mother' to many. Her life was exemplary of the Agape love of God. Her smile and generosity was felt by many; she was her brother's and/or sister's keeper. May she rest in peace from her labor. I send heartfelt condolences to Liz and the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ To the Family of Mama Lou Phillips: My friend, Mama Lou Phillips, was a wonderful woman of God, who every time you saw her she had a radiant infectious smile on her face will be dearly missed.. Here was a woman who loved God and who demonstrated her love for Him through her faithfulness and devotion, more so than any young person. . It was an honor to know her and to serve with her on the Gospel Choir, and to share apart of her life.. Though my heart was saddened to hear of her transition from earth to bright glory, know that she is in a better place, where there are no more tears or sorrow or death for the former things are passed away. .My prayers are with the family.

“ Earth has no sorrow, that heaven can't heal. Words cannot express how I feel, right now, hearing about the passing of Mama Lou. Mama Lou, was such a jewel and to know her, is to love her. My father often said, Mama Lou had the prettiest smile and gentle spirit,. Also, how she led the Gospel Choir for years and there was never a problem, she did a phenomenal job with the choir. Liz, please know that I am just a phone call away and you know your big sister, has your back. I am so glad you shared her with us and I was able to see her the last time I was home. Mama Lou is with her Bishop, First Lady and the Gospel Choir. Mama Lou, sleep on take your rest, give mom and dad my love. Evette and , Donna and the rest of the family, God has you and he will never leave you. Mama Lou, see you in the morning. Let's celebrate you on Saturday, because you deserve it.

“I was saddened to hear about the passing of Mama Lou. A lady who knew me before I knew myself. I will always remember her smile and her quiet disposition that she always maintain. I remember in my formative years at Macedonia, her reading the "Sick List". Mama Lou always kept the church informed on the sick and shut-in, in our community and abroad. Mama Lou, was true to her calling. When I was a young girl, I didn't understand that but looking back over the years, I thank God because she "served well". I will always remember her commitment to God, to her church, and to the people of God. Her tender and godly character was matchless. A Life Well Lived.

“ Better known by many, Momma Lou will be sorely missed. She and her daughter Elizabeth, were a staple on my family's home for holiday dinners. Her pure and authentic life and spirit was eminent of the "good neighbor" and "church mother" that she was. Take your rest Momma Lou. Hug my momma and sisters for me. Fourth and Laurel will never be the same.
