“ I am truly sorry to hear about Ms. Dean's passing. There are many words of comfort I would like to say; however, it has often been found that the best source of comfort is found in God's word. God is aware of your pain. "He heals the brokenhearted. He binds up their wounds." (Psalms 147:3) Death was never meant to be (Genesis 2:17) Therefore, "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord will wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) May the hope of being reunited with Ms. Dean you a measure of comfort and joy.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ I am sorry for your loss please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus promises of the earthly resurrection (:Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one. -Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time. -Matthew 5:4.

“ Family,

May the memories of the times you shared together bring you comfort. May God, the father of tender mercies, comfort and help all of you to progress through each day. Please find and share with each other the encouragement found in the Bible book of Revelation chapter 21 and verse 4.
