Macon Bailey Trower was born on August 16, 1920, to the late Rebecca Brittingham Bailey and departed this life on September 15, 2012, at Heritage Hall Nursing home, Nassawadox, Virginia.

She received her formal education in the Northampton County public school system. At an early age she excepted God in her life and became a member of Bethel Baptist Church in Franktown, Virginia. In the early 40's, she met and married James N. Trower, Jr. They had one son William Trower.

Macon leaves to cherish her precious memories: one son- William (Gladys) Trower; two grandchildren- Cynthia A. Bull and Gregory T. Trower; five great grand-Gregory "TJ" Harmonson, Shanneka Harmonson, Lamont Harmonson, Natesha Bull, James M. Bull Jr.; five sisters, two brothers- Georgia Savage, Cora Sampled, Elizabeth Ames, Ida Collins, Mary Trower-Custis, William Bailey, Hilton Bailey and a host of nieces nephews other relatives and friends.

Macon was always willing to listen to people and lend a kind word of advice. She was never too busy to lend a helping hand. Especially, to her grand children who was the love of her life, and they knew it too. To know her was to love her. Mom will be deeply missed.
