“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. During such heart-wrenching times we cannot help but think of how precious and yet fragile life can be (James 4:14). As you are comforted by family and friends, please also be comforted with the sure hope the Bible gives us (Jeremiah 29:11; Matthew 5:4). Recorded in the Bible is Jesus promise that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29). He wants us to exercise faith in that promise assured that he will do what he says (John 11:25). Since death is not only an enemy to humans, but also to God (1 Corinthians 15:26), He promises to also remove forever all pain, suffering, wickedness, and death in order for obedient mankind to enjoy life forever as God originally purposed (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29; Genesis 1:28). What a glorious future ahead! It's our privilege to do as God asks by simply doing His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; Proverbs 3:5,6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures and be blessed (Psalm 1:1-3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
