

Madeline Denise Trader

July 8, 1967 - March 18, 2021

Madeline “Marlene” Denise Trader entered this world on Saturday, July 8, 1967, the daughter of Mildred Milbourne. Marlene had a scheduled appointment on March 17, 2021 at Eternal Life Institute on Heaven’s Boulevard. Early Wednesday morning, she dressed for her appointment and went to do God’s Will.

Marlene received her education in the Accomack County school system. At the time of her passing, she was a cafeteria worker at Arcadia Middle School in Oak Hall, Virginia.

During Marlene’s stay here on earth, she touched the hearts of so many people. Everyone who met and knew Marlene knew she was the life of the party. She was a loving and caring mother and daughter. Her smile and laughter brought joy and peace to everyone. Marlene was truly blessed to be a blessing to so many and the memories we all have of her are truly a testimony of her life today.

Precious and priceless memories of Marlene are left to: her mother, Mildred Milbourne; husband, Robert Trader; daughter, Wysheka Trader; five grandchildren, Khali Trader, Sean Carter, Sebastian Burton, Zy’Mere Burton and Lillian Burton; one sister, Samantha Fisher of Landover, Maryland; one special brother, Dwayne Marshall of Withams, Virginia; four uncles, Norman

Fisher of Salisbury, Maryland, William Harmon of Pocomoke, Maryland, Vernon Taylor of Salem, New Jersey and Nelson Hinmon of Withams, Virginia as well as a host of other relatives and friends.
