“ Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: ‘I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.’ Then he continued: ‘He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living.’ I know that those words mean that those retained in God’s memory and will return in the resurrection.”

“ To the Family: Please accept my deepest sympathy. As you reflect back on the wonderful times shared with Madge, may it lift your hearts. God is aware of your pain. We know this because his word tells us: "He heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds." "Our Lord is great and is mighty in power; His understanding is beyond measure." Psalms 147:3,5 He has promised: "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces." Isaiah 28:8 May reflecting on these wonderful promises bring you a measure of comfort.
