“ To the Family of Mamie Bessix aka Puddin,

Our families were neighbors, friends ending in a blended family. She was one with a beautiful smile, hearty laughter and a fervent prayer if one needed that. Such a warm spirited person. Such fond memories, Mamie will be missed by family and many others as she has moved on to her new home. One can imagine her voice echo out, "If anybody ask you where I'm going...I'm going up YONDER to be with my Lord." Don't worry or fret for, " I'll be waiting over YONDER for you." An unfamiliar southern word, to some, that has come to mean so much. Mamie awaits on YONDER hill, where blessed peace resides. May that peace be with each of you always.
