

Mamie Lee Morris

August 21, 1933 - December 20, 2023

Obituary

The face we loved new asleep laid low;
Her loving voice is still.
The hands so often holding ours,
Lies new in death's cold chill.

Mamie Smith Morris, the youngest of six siblings and beloved daughter of the late Dora Jackmon Smith and Gouenor Smith, answered the summons that sounds for all men on Wednesday, December 20, 2023. She passed quietly at home in the presence of her caretaker, Shirnera Christian, who was like a daughter to her.

Mamie was born in Eastville, VA on August 24, 1933. She was educated in the Northampton County School System. She labored in several classes of work, however she retired from the Northampton County School System after thirty years of service in the dietary department. She was a member of the Union Baptist church for over forty years and attended until her health failed.

She leaves to mourn her passing: one son, Troy Morris of Machipongo, VA; four grandchildren, Janice Morris of Salisbury, MD, Serrance Ames and Quintal Harmon, both of VA and Britany Ambers of MD; one sister-in-law,

Alberta Church of VA and a host of loving nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Mamie also is survived by Shiner Christian who was like a daughter to her and her caretaker for years as well as Tucker and Joyce Vinnie who were very close to her and helped care for her in many ways.

Mamie was preceded in death by: her husband, Gwendolyn Morris; a niece whom she raised as her daughter, Teresa Edwards; one sister, Clara Coston; five brothers, Elwood Smith, Sr., Alex Smith, Cleveland Smith, Sr., Clifton Smith, Sr, and Wille Smith; four sisters-in-law and three brothers-in-law.

Lovingly Submitted ~The Family
