“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. During your time of grief, please take comfort in the bible promises. Acts 24:15, tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Also, Revelation 21:3&4 tells us that in the near future, death, tears and pain will be removed. Please look forward to that time. Until then, may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41:10; Revelation 21:3,4) I hope these thoughts will comfort you also.
