

Marcel Harold Dall-Silver

December 27, 1948 - March 25, 2014

Marcel Harold Dall-Silver, husband of Jennicke "Nikki" Williams-Dall passed away peacefully on March 25, 2014, due to complications of a life-long condition.

Born in Jamaica on December 27, 1948, the only child of Madge Billings and John Silver preceded in death. He was raised and educated through college in London, England, before immigrating permanently to the United States in 1973. After a long and successful thirty-seven year career as an Executive in the Hotel Industry he retired in early, 2009.

He had an insatiable intellectual curiosity, always unassuming and unfailingly polite, with a genuine sense of humor. Well-travelled, both here and abroad. He was also a voracious book reader, a music-lover, and an avid chess player.

Marcel lived and was guided by three basic axioms and sayings "Knowledge is Power", "IT'S NOT IF, BUT WHEN", and most importantly, "Do unto others, as you would have them do unto to you.

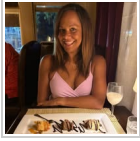

He is survived by his wife, Nikki, two children, Jason Duane Dall (Tracee) and Erin Katherine Dall-Silver, and three grandchildren, Marley Elizabeth, Langston Marcel and Rowan Charlotte.

He would sometimes say "I have had a great life, with very few regrets, but unfortunately I may never live long enough to truly know my Grandchildren, and for them to know me, in any meaningful way. And for that, above all else, is truly, truly painful.

He will, however, be missed and fondly remembered by many, many people.

“ *Dad,
Happy early birthday. I read your obituary twice a year, on or around your birthday and your day of passing. Every year as I grow my emotions change. I want you to know I met the love of my life and I wish you were still here to walk me down to aisle with Clint. I wish I gave you the chance to get to know me as an adult and that I will always regret. I wish I had the emotional capabilities in my 20's to let go of the past but I just didn't have that in me yet and that I have to live with. I am proud to be your daughter and I love you so very much. Now take a sip of your Red Stripe for me <3 Your little girl*

“ We are so sorry to hear about the passing of Marcel. He was always so positive about everything in life. Even though his life was shorter than we would have liked, the time he was here, he spread a lot of positive thoughts and encouragement to those around him. We will miss him. Nikki, if you need anything, please don't hesitate to call, 410-490-3128.

*Sincerely,
Mary and Michael King*

“ His beautiful spirit will live on through his grandchildren. Even though our meeting was brief I could feel the goodness within. Perhaps on his trip to heaven he will bump into mom and dad. Peace to his family, he is in a better place.

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I can't say that I know how you feel at this time and I don't know your pain, but the Bible recommends, " Rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with people who weep “,so until your tears turn into joy, for this reason; I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one.-Romans 12:15. I would also like to share my belief on the resurrection hope with you(Acts 24:15). Soon Jesus will fulfill God's will on earth, by raising up and restoring back to life, those who are now sleeping in death; with the wonderful prospect of living forever on the restored Paradise earth, where sickness and death will no longer plague mankind.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessing unfolds and you share in the reunion with your deceased loved one; may GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant your family peace and comfort, during this grievous time.-Isaiah 66:13.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your family's Patriarch. There are few words that can truly offer comfort during this grievous time. Jesus stated: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me will never die at all." (John 11:25) Also it is stated at Daniel 12:2: "Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." This assures us of the possibility of being reunited with our deceased loved ones right here on earth under perfect conditions with no sick, sorrow, or death. May pondering over this wonderful future blessings bring you comfort.

“ While I didn't know Marcel personally, it is obvious that he loved his family. Please take comfort in God's promise of a resurrection. Jesus words at John 5:28 tells us not to be amazed... for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. As you cope with the loss, take time to draw close to God (James 4:8)who is the God of All comfort (2Corinthians 1:3).
Respectfully,
Ellen

“ I am sorry to read about your loss. May God's words in the Bible at Ps 34:18 provide you comfort. The scriptures tells us "HE" is near to those broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit HE saves.
