

Marcelino S. Vazquez

April 26, 1942 - September 22, 2018

Marcelino S. Vazquez, known as “Pedro” or “Pete” to his family and friends, was born on April 26, 1942, in the small fishing village of Catano, Puerto Rico. He departed this life on Saturday, September 22, 2018.

Pedro managed Mexican migrant workers for DiSabtino Mushroom Farm, in Kennett Square, Pennsylvania, for many years. He was responsible for all of their housing, food, and personal shopping. His last job was as a supervisor at Roos Foods in Kenton, Delaware.

Pete’s hard work paid off and he was able to purchase his own property at 3164 Downes Chapel Road, Clayton, Delaware.

Pedro was preceded in death by his parents; three siblings, and a granddaughter, Jessica Harrison.

Pedro leaves to cherish his memories, his wife of 41 years, Mary Ann Vazquez; three daughters, Darcel Jenkins of Wilmington DE, Aretha Jenkins of Cecilton MD, and Gwendolyn Gaskin of Chico, CA; three grandchildren, Garry Harrison Jr., Lamar Bessix, and Jemal Waters, Jr.; four great grandchildren; brothers-in-law, Calvin Jenkins and James Jenkins; sisters-in-law, Gladys McCloud, Jeanette Hunter, and Linda May, and a special niece, Inez Bailey.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God \"will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\"

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. \r\n\r\nAs recorded in the Bible, God\u2019s only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It\u2019s a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).\r\n\r\nMy wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.\r\n
