

Margaret E. Cammile

January 20, 1915 - January 6, 2018

Margaret E. Cammile of Hartly, Delaware, went home to rest on January 6, 2018. Born January 20, 1915, in Hartly, Delaware, she was the oldest daughter of the late Freeman and Elizabeth Cammile. Margaret received her education at Lockwood Elementary School, Kenton, School, and Delaware State College.

Margaret worked as a secretary and substitute teacher in the Lockwood School System and for private families until her mother became ill. She cared for her mother faithfully, until her mother's death. Margaret was a faithful member of Lockwood A.M.E. Church, now, Emmanuel A.M.E. Church, serving as delegate, steward, President of Pastor's Aide, Secretary for Missionaries and the Culinary Committee president. She loved working for the Lord. In the year of 2000, her brother took ill and she cared for him until his death.

Margaret was preceded in death by her father in January 1946; mother in April of 1980; sister, Gladys L. Mason, in 1999 and brother, James A. Cammile in November of 2005.

Margaret is survived by her caregiver, Mary Alice Harling; two cousins, Alyce King and Michael Rosal; and a host of other cousins, relatives, and many friends.

Margaret's favorite scriptures were Psalms 27 and 31. She will be remembered for all the work she has done in her quiet, Christian-like manner.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. My favorite text is, Acts 17:31, which states: 'Because [God] has set a day in which he purposes to judge the inhabited earth in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and he has furnished a guarantee to all men in that he has resurrected him from the dead.' Jesus' resurrection is our guarantee of a future resurrection.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."29
