

Margaret Winifred Commodore

February 27, 1929 - February 15, 2018

On Thursday, February 15, 2018, Margaret “Peggy” Winifred Thompson Commodore, age 88, went home to be with the Lord and her Savior Jesus Christ. She was born on February 27, 1929 to the late James and Mabel Thompson, both of whom preceded her in death.

Peggy attended Kent County Public Schools and graduated from the Adult Education Program. Peggy’s employment consisted of service with the Vita Foods Products and Dixon Valve companies. After retiring, Peggy worked for the former Mayor of Chestertown, Maryland, Elmer Horsey and his wife Joan.

Peggy accepted Jesus Christ as Her Savior at an early age at Mount Pleasant United Methodist Church, in Fairlee, MD, where she was a member and faithful servant until her death. She had lovely childhood memories of playing on the church grounds and enjoying Sunday School activities, as well as watching the older ladies cooking and serving dinners in the church hall. As an adult, Peggy served the Mount Pleasant United Methodist Church as, Children’s Church Superintendent, Chair of the Administrative Board, church choir singer, and overall church helper. Peggy loved to sing and did so in the Church choir, in the Church Hall while preparing meals for special church gatherings, and often from morning to night in her home. Her faith and trust in God was transferred to many young people who as adults are still impacted by her quiet and gentle training and encouragement of practical life lessons.

Margaret was preceded in death by her husband, Norris W. Commodore, Sr. to whom she was united in marriage in 1950. Peggy leaves to cherish her memory, five loving children; Alvin L. Thompson (Carole), Wilbur E. Commodore, Norris W. Commodore (Theresa), Tracy Simons (Clinton) and Iris S. Person (Dale); seven grandchildren; two great grandchildren; three sisters; three brothers; two sisters-in-law; as well as a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We send this condolence with the sure hope the Bible provides all of us at difficult times like this.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). As death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove from this earth FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious day that will surely be! It's a reality and a sure hope that we can trust in because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2).

My wife and I sincerely encourage you to look up and meditate on these noted scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). You will surely be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope our Grand Creator has in store for us (John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I would like to express my heartfelt sympathy to the family for the loss of your dear Margaret. I hope that you will find comfort in the words of Jesus at John 5:28,29 where he promised that the day is coming when he is going to resurrect back to life those in the grave. Until then, it is just like they are sleeping. (John 11:11-13) May your family draw strength from Jehovah, the God of all Comfort.
