

Margaret D. Miller

March 2, 1935 - April 20, 2014

Elder Margaret Delores Miller peacefully fell asleep in the arms of our Heavenly Father on April 20, 2014 at Bayhealth Medical Center - Kent General Hospital in Dover, Delaware at the age of 79. Elder Miller was born on March 2, 1935. She was the daughter of the late Linford and Martha Harris. Elder Miller received her elementary education at Star Hill Elementary School and secondary education at William Henry School. She was a dedicated employee of Delaware State News and Playtex, where she was employed for over 30 years.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sisters, Mildred G. Harris, Thelma D. Council and June Harris. She leaves to cherish her memories a loving and devoted daughter, Gloria Harris-Potts of Dover, Delaware; two loving and cherished grandsons, DeMarcus L. Harris (Keisha) of Vera Beach, Florida and DeAndrus L. Harris of Felton, Delaware; a loyal, loving elder sister, Missionary Clara L. Paskins; a faithful, kindhearted brother-in-law, Kenneth Council; seven great-grandchildren: DeAndree, DeAndrus Jr., Pashence, Kourtney, DeMarcus Jr., Zoé, and Dru; as well as a host of beloved nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Keeping true to Matthew 5:16, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven; Elder Miller was a lifelong, devoted member of M.F. Chase Unity Memorial Church of

Star Hill, Delaware where she faithfully served as the former President of the Growing Vines Youth Choir, former President of the Senior Choir, President of the Pastor's Aide, President of the Ministerial Department, and President of the Women's Department. In addition to the offices held, she served as a member of the Missionary Society, the planning committee for the Annual Session as well as the kitchen committee and was a student of the Interdenominational Bible Institute working towards a Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies.

Elder Miller was a dedicated and devoted grandmother who loved and enjoyed the company of her family. She truly enjoyed shopping and became well-known for her beautiful hats, suits, and shoes. We truly thank The Lord for the borrowed time we were allowed to spend with her. We shall rejoice in The Lord always for the pathway she paved and the joyous life she led.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. During this grievous time there are few words that can truly provide comfort. However, God's Word tells us there will come a time in the future when we will truly be able to say: "Death where is your victory? Death where is your sting?" 1 Cor. 15:33 "There is going to be a resurrection." Acts 24:15 May reflecting on the possibility of being reunited with Margaret right here on earth under perfect conditions bring you comfort.

“ I am so sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. As you prepare to lay them to rest; to sleep in death for just a little while (John 11:11) I hope your family will find solace in the resurrection promise of Jesus; to awaken those who are now sleeping in death (John 5:28,29) restoring them back to life; this time with the hope to live eternally on the renewed Paradise earth, so that God's will, will be done on the earth, as it is in Heaven.-Matthew 6:9,10; Luke 23:43. Until that wonderful blessed promise is fulfilled, and you are reunited with your loved one again; may GOD(Psalms 83:18) soothe your grieving hearts now and grant you peace and comfort, during this most grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
