

Margie Riley

February 10, 1943 - July 31, 2021

Margie E. Riley was born on February 10, 1943, to the late Ernest Walter and Lucy Ernestine Riley. She departed this life on July 31, 2021.

Margie graduated from West Philadelphia High School. She relocated to New York early in her life. She later became a health aide, as she LOVED working with the elderly community. Margie loved attending gospel concerts, as she would "lip sync along".

Margie was a member of Beulah Baptist Church. She enjoyed traveling and baking. Sweet potato pies were one of her famous desserts. Margie will always be remembered for her quick-witted, SHARP responses, and for always sticking to her word.

Margie leaves to cherish her memory, a daughter, Rhonda Jones (Charles) of Blades, Delaware; sons, James Bennett (Leslie) of Brooklyn, New York and Maurice Riley of Manhattan, New York; six grandchildren, Shamein Carter, Gary Harris, Cierra Riley, Dion James Bennett, Denisha Brown and Douglas
