

Marian Sampson

February 9, 1944 - April 30, 2013

Marian Louise Sampson, formerly of Federalsburg, MD, passed away on Tuesday, April 30, 2013 at Nanticoke Memorial Hospital in Seaford, DE. She was born February 9, 1944 by a midwife at home.

She attended Frederick Douglass Schools. She then graduated from William C. Jason High School. Most people knew her by (Baby Sis). Baby Sis became employed by Paramount Poultry for several years. She retired from becoming a caregiver, a co-owner of their own business. She also worked as a tax preparer from her own home.

Baby Sis was very well loved. She was a good friend and a mother to many. Baby Sis always had a good ear to listen, a good heart and a warm spirit.

Baby Sis loved fishing, going to the casino, playing bingo, playing her organ to see if you knew what song she was playing, she even liked staying up all night on her computer. She was known for her famous cooking. But most of all, she loved trying to teach her Parakeet, Pearl how to talk.

Marian was preceded in death by her mother, Alice Sampson; father, Elwood Johnson and a sister, Etta Sampson;

She leaves to mourn her only child, James Sampson Sr. (Alessa); her fiancé,

Wendell Jones; two brothers, George Sampson and Sherwood Sampson (Debbie) both of Seaford, DE; five grandchildren, Conchetta Sampson, Asia Sampson, Takina Sampson, Zachary Bartz and James Sampson, Jr.; four great-grandchildren, Zidaijha Sampson, Nyasiajha Sampson, Tyshaya Burton and Jaizire Burton; a special daughter-in-law, Alessa Sampson; seven step-children that she adored; four special friends, Carolyn Batson, Shirley Cannon, Doris Robinson, Debbie Carnean; one special nephew, Eddie Jones; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins that she truly loved.

Tribute Wall

MJ

“ I am sorry to read of your loss; please accept my sincere condolences. Jesus gives us hope for all those who have fallen asleep in death; a resurrection(Acts 24:15) when he with the aid of Jehovah God's holy spirit, will call and they will answer(Job 14:14,15) being raised from death and restored back to life, with the prospect of eternal life on the renewed paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. May God continue to comfort and bless the Sampson Family.-Matthew 5:4.

---

Mattie Jones - May 01, 2013 at 12:00 AM