

Marian Scott

August 22, 1931 - July 2, 2013

Marian Scott, the youngest of ten children, was born on August 22, 1931 in Wyoming, DE to the late Raymond Scott and Mary E. Bowers Scott. She departed this life on July 2, 2013.

Marian lived in Wilmington for a period of time but returned to the Camden-Wyoming area. She received her early education there and attended Delaware State College which also served as a high school.

Marian worked in the Housekeeping Department at Kent General Hospital for a short period of time. She then moved to the Delaware Home for the Chronically Ill, where she worked for 30 years as a Nursing Assistant and then in Transport.

As a child Marian attended Zion AME Church in Camden, Delaware. Her family then became members of the First Born COGIC under the pastorate of Elder Sloran Alford. After his death the family attended Mt. Olive Holy Temple in Philadelphia, PA. When her mother founded Fellowship Mission she became a member. She served as a Sunday School teacher, Vacation Bible School Teacher, assistant secretary and as an usher. Sister Marian also served as the Hostess for our Annual Prayer Breakfast. Two of Sister Marian's favorite songs were "It's All In His Hands and It Pays to Serve Jesus".

Marian was preceded in death by her parents Raymond and Elder Mary E. Scott, and her siblings Ida, Raymond, Howard, Thomas, David, Sarah Ellen, Ruth, and Eva Mae.

She is survived by her sister Rachel Elizabeth Scott, her niece and caregiver, Delores Milbourne, John Milbourne, Charlynn Boyer, Dwayne Boyer (Clarise) Robin (Timothy) Couch, Iris (Ivan) Broomer, Myra Moore, Brian Moore; great-nieces and nephews; cousins; godchildren Angela Vernet, Amos Bratten, Jr., and Joseph Bratten; and special friends.
