“ To all family and friends,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37:11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. As family and friends comfort and support one another through this difficult time (Proverbs 17:17), much comfort and a sure hope can also be received through meditating on the inspired Word of God, the Bible (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). In His Word, it tells us how Jesus promised that one day he would bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). He also emphasized how important it is that we have faith in what he will accomplish (John 11:25; 3:16). All those who are brought back to life along with those who are living will experience something that humans have not seen in the thousands of years we have been in existence - Almighty God's removal forever of all the pain, suffering, and death mankind has endured all this time (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What an absolute glorious day that will be! It is impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2); so we can be assured it will happen. We can even say that it is as "good as done". That is why God, through His Word, the Bible, wants us to do His Will and be blessed forever (1 John 2:117). Please look up and meditate on all these scriptures and be comforted by the God of All Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
