The Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in;
Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win;
Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best;
Just say I tried to do what's right, to give the most I could, not less:
I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due
Please don't give flowers, or talk in real hushed tones;
Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done
Just see to all my family's needs, especially the little ones
When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint;
I've done some good; I've done some wrong, so use all your paint;
Not just the bright and light tones use some gray and dark;
In fact, don't put me down on canvas, paint me in your heart,
Don't just remember the good times, but remember all the bad;
For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad,
But if you must do something, then I have one request,
Forgive me for the wrong I've done, and with the love that's left,
Thank God for my soul's resting
Thank God for I've been blessed
Thank God for all who loved me
Praise God who loved me best

And always remember; "I Love you more"
