“ To the family and friends of Marion Fluhr, please accept my sincere condolence for your loss. May all of you gain a measure of comfort, remembering that by means of God’s Kingdom, all human suffering and even death will one day be completely removed! (1 Corinthians 15:25; Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:4) For our dear loved ones who have fallen asleep in death, a resurrection to life on a paradise earth awaits them. (Acts 24:15; John 5:25-30; Psalm 37: 10, 11, 29)

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”
