

Marjorie Elizabeth "Betty" Freeman

April 15, 1934 - July 9, 2019

Marjorie Elizabeth (Smith) Freeman better known as "Betty", " Ms. Betty" or "Betty Boop", peacefully transitioned to be with the Lord on Tuesday, July 9, 2019, in Easton, Maryland, at the age of 85.

Ms. Betty, the daughter of the late Margaret Brown and William Smith, was born on April 15, 1934, in Easton, Maryland.

Betty was educated in the Talbot County Public School System and graduated from Robert Russa Moton High School in 1952. After graduating, she started working at Easton Memorial Hospital in Easton, Maryland. Her first job there was in housekeeping, then a nurse's aide. She provided assistance to doctors and was an awesome worker at the hospital, performing tasks on any floor that she would be assigned to work. Her job ethics, her love for helping others, was her expertise at the hospital, this led doctors to specifically ask for her to be in the delivery room. Betty worked for thirty years before retiring in 1995.

Ms. Betty was a member of Scotts United Methodist Church in Trappe, Maryland. She was a member of the United Methodist Women, the Praise Worship Women's Choir and Red Hatters. She attended the Senior Center in Easton and participated in many of their activities. She especially enjoyed sewing.

Betty Boop loved her children and grandchildren. She was always available to love, care, share, listen and give advice to those that ask.

Betty was a devoted mother leaving to cherish her memory five children, Debbie, William, Frisby III , Yvonne and Bruce Freeman all of Easton, Maryland; nine grandchildren, Hope, Natasha, Andrew, Shemeka, Tia, Latasha, Curtis Jr., Amber and Nya; 17 great-grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren and a host of extended family, cousins and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Frisby Jr. and a son Curtis Sr.
