“ Robin and Terri I was saddened to hear about the passing of your mother. She is someone I have known my entire life. Being my 2nd grade teacher I can remember her handwriting on the chalkboard and her unique signature. I also remember your mother telling me once. “Just because you don't know how to do something doesn't mean you shouldn't try”. As a second grader that didn't mean much. But as an adult remembering that phrase gives me reason to pause and realize that what she said was simple but profound. I know there are many adults whose lives were touched because your mother was the educator she was. I sincerely hope that all of you find comfort during these times knowing that you had a special mother and that although she is not physically with us the memories all of us have of her keep her alive in our hearts

“ Terri, Robin, and Rogena, I'm so sorry to hear of Mrs. Marjorie's passing. Every time I met her or talked to her she was such a gracious and kind person. Mrs. Marjorie demonstrated the love of Jesus everyday in her life. She raised two phenomenal women and helped to raise an awesome granddaughter. I know you will miss her but remember you have your memories of the best times with her. I love you all and we are still praying for you and the family.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God “will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”
