“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your mother. She will be missed indeed. I am sure you will agree that there is no greater bond than one between a mother and her children. It is comforting to know that she is sleeping peacefully in death and is awaiting the time when John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 will be fulfilled. This time will be made a reality by means of God's Kingdom in which we pray for in the Lord's Prayer. Please take care,

“ To the Children, Siblings and Grandchildren of Our Beloved Marjorie Ann Collins Wright: We can all be Thankful that God let us have such a beautiful person in our lives that loved GOD and All of her family and friends. May God continue to bless you all and give you the Strength to get though this difficult time. Just hold on to the memories of her last moments here on earth with you all, thanking and praising God for her just knowing that in her own words that her moment was "Just a hair away", Marg was ready.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Wright family. I did not know Marjorie personally but I understand how hard a time like this can be and I am sorry for your loss. May our Heavenly Father, who is the God of all comfort, give you the strength and comfort that you need (2 Corinthians 1:3). Our Heavenly Father understands your pain because he too has experienced the death of his beloved Son, Jesus Christ. Just as God resurrected his Son, he yearns to resurrect our loved ones as well (Job 14:14,15). I hope these words give you the comfort and peace you need during this difficult time.

“ Deborah and Paulette,

I'm so sorry to hear of your mothers passing. I met her 6 years ago and was amazed by her strength. She was a sweet lady and loved her family very much, and I'm sure she was a great mom to you. I pray for Gods peace and comfort to your family during this difficult time.

With love, Kris
