

Marlo Aurellis Tolliver Sr.

October 27, 1981 - February 2, 2019

Marlo Aurellis Tolliver, Sr., age 37, transitioned from this world on Saturday, February 2, 2019, in the comfort of his home, in Lincoln, Delaware. He was born to Marlo and Marea Tolliver at Milford Memorial Hospital on October 27, 1981.

Marlo, affectionately known as, “Little Marlo”, was raised in Lincoln, Delaware. As a child, Marlo was no stranger to mischief, and loved to keep everyone on their toes. Marlo enjoyed using his hands to tinker, seeing how things were made and how they operated. Marlo also thoroughly enjoyed being a jokester. He never missed an opportunity to prank someone, or share in laughter with those around him. Growing up, Marlo loved the game of basketball, and played for Milford High School. He enjoyed spending time with family, friends and his children. Marlo could be found using his 6’7” stature to try and intimidate you, or be found giving someone a huge bear hug. Marlo was a Jack of All Trades, and skilled at many things. He could work on electronics, trained in masonry, skilled in music equipment, and an expert at carpet fitting. Marlo recently embarked on a life and career change by taking culinary classes to become a chef. He was most at peace when doing what he loved to do, cooking and creating dishes while listening to his rhythm and blues music. Marlo will be immensely missed and forever in our hearts.

Marlo was preceded in death by maternal grandfather, Curtis Thomas Sr., and paternal grandmother, Iona T. Allen. Marlo is survived by his parents: mother, Marea Tolliver (Lincoln, DE), father, Marlo F. Tolliver (Bridgeville, DE); children: daughter, Leah Reed (Bridgeville, DE), son, Marlyus White (Lincoln, DE), son, Marzion Tolliver (Bridgeville, DE), son, Kyle (DE), daughter, K'yadda Petion (Wilmington, DE), daughter, Keysyah Ford (Seaford, DE), daughter, Kelysyty Ford (Seaford, DE), son, Kayden (Delaware), son, Quincy May (Dover, DE), son, Marlo Tolliver Jr (Dover, DE), and son, Josiah Tolliver (Dover, DE); Siblings: brother, Sean Thomas (Lincoln, DE), sister, Machika Thomas (Lincoln, DE), brother, Marlon Gunner (Federalsburg, MD), brother, Deondrae Tolliver (Dover, DE), sister, Shakira Oliver (Anthony Oliver) (Seaford, DE). Marlo is also survived by maternal grandfather, William Bowden (Millsboro, DE) and maternal grandmother, Grace Thomas (Lewes, DE), as well as a host of many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

“ Marlo you are going to be deeply missed. I remember when you and Shakira first started my cousin day care. I don't know who cried the most you or Shakira. As the years went by you turned out to be a gentle person. I honor you for the things you was accomplishing in life. Especially having an great impact on my daughter (your niece) Shae. You is/was the talk of her life, matter fact you are her favorite uncle. You were/is loved by many but God needed you more. We are left with an empty void but we know you are watching over everyone...

“ Marlo you will be missed when you got out of jail I was glad you hit me up through my messenger we talked about old times and laughed at the picture that you still have of me back when we were in middle school. You said remember this picture my old fling we both laughed. Thursday well last Thursday was our last conversation you told me the things you were going to accomplish and so on such as graduating from culinary arts school in April 24th of this year you were so happy about it and talked about opening your own business and a vehicle you were looking at. I wished I would have called you back Friday or that Thursday night like I said I would my last words to you were let me get back to work I will call you back and you were like ok. but I never made that call back I will always love you Marlo you were a good dude. My heart go out to your family and I know your looking down on all of us smiling Love you Marlo Love Sheek.....
