

Martha Lou Deale

March 17, 1934 - April 1, 2025

Martha's Journey

Martha Lou Deale was born on Saturday, March 17, 1934 to the late Ferlia Vinson of Clayton, North Carolina. On Tuesday, April 1, 2025, Martha departed this life peacefully in the comfort of her home in Salisbury, Maryland, with her husband, Sidney, by her side.

Martha received her education from Cooper High School, graduating in 1952. While attending Cooper High School, she played basketball. At an early age, she was a member of St. Augustine A.M.E. Church. After high school, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland to pursue a job with "Mother's Helpers," where she resided with her Uncle Lewis and wife May. Martha then moved to New Jersey where she met Sidney Deale, later marrying on September 13, 1961. Martha had a host of different jobs until she retired. For everyone with whom she came in contact, Martha had a unique way of letting them know that they were appreciated and adored by her. She would always give compliments to others. That was her special gift from God that she shared with everyone.

Martha was preceded in death by her mother, Ferlia Vinson, her sisters, Earnestine Sanders, Barbara Moore (Frank), Florence Smith (Charlie), brother, Leonard Vinson and daughter, Carolyn Deale.

Martha leaves to cherish loving memories: her husband, Sidney Deale; sons, Harold Deale (Jennifer) of Columbia, SC and Ryan Deale (Cheryl) of Salisbury, MD; four grandchildren, Natishi Mitchell, Delicia Deale and Harold Deale, Jr., all of Columbia, SC and Tristan Sinclair of Frederick, MD; six great grandchildren, Justin Jones, Keyana Richardson, Morgan Jones, Keyon Moody, Key'Mari Mitchell and Key'Shawn Robinson; two great great grandchildren, Zoey Fowler and Aria Mitchell, both of Columbia, SC; a special friend, Cheryl Simpson and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.
