

Martha Ellen Johnson (Brown)

January 31, 1919 - June 10, 2019

Mother Johnson was born January 31, 1919, to the late Bertha Brown and Harrison Lewis in Dover, Delaware. She transitioned from this earthly life on Monday, June 10, 2019 at home with family.

Martha began her Christian walk at Union Baptist Church of Dover and First Pilgrim Baptist Church in Camden, Delaware. Mother Johnson continued her Christian service in Ushers and Nurses' ministry at Solid Rock Baptist Church underneath the Spiritual Guidance of Pastor William A. Grimes.

Always willing to learn, Mother Johnson loved craft classes, including floral arrangement and plastic canvas just to name a few. In her early years, she loved assembling puzzles, sewing, word search and baking. Martha was always interested in baking unique items; mayonnaise cake, sauerkraut cake, watergate salad and zucchini bread were some of her famous recipes.

Mother Johnson is preceded in death by her husband of over 50 years Marshall Ralph Johnson; two daughters, Barbara Gross and Loretta Johnson and a son, Ralph Kenneth Johnson.

She leaves to cherish her memory, two daughters, Doris Price and Christine Osei-TuTu both of Wilmington, Delaware; two sons, Rudolph Brown and Edward Demby; and one cherished, adopted daughter Sandy of Craig,

Colorado. A host of family, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great- great grandchildren.
