“ Having recently lost a very dear one in death, I understand that there are few words that can truly ease your pain at this time. However, may you take comfort in knowing that God cares about your pain and he feels your pain. (1 Peter 2:7) (John 11:34-38) Having the absolute power to do so, God has promised: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. And the one seated on the throne said: "Look I am making all things new." Also he says: "Write, for these words are faithful and true." (Rev. 21:4,5) Fulfillment of these words will mean being reunited right here on earth with our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death.(Mark 5:39-42) Please accept my sincere condolences.
