

Marva Jones

May 14, 1947 - September 3, 2014

Reverend Marva Agnes Burris Jones, wife of the late Reverend Byarie Jones, Jr., the daughter of Creola Burris and the late Clarence C. Burris, Jr., was born on May 14, 1947 in Wilmington, Delaware. She departed this life after a long illness on Wednesday, September 3, 2014 at Milford Delaware Hospice.

Marva received her elementary and high school education in New York. She received her bachelor's degree in education from Delaware State College (University), Dover, DE.

Marva's careers included a TW A airline hostess, a State of Georgia police woman and an elementary teacher in Salisbury, MD.

She joined Calvary Baptist Church in Dover, Delaware and was later called into the ministry and licensed as a minister and ordained by Pastor Richard M. Avant. She was a faithful member of Calvary and shared the gospel with everyone. Her main focus was to be able to teach and preach to almost everyone with whom she came in contact.

Reverend Jones was an active member of the community. She was the best role model of what a mother, wife, sister and friend should be.

Loved ones left to cherish her memory include her mother, Creola Burris; one son, D'mitri Morgan; three daughters, Ayasha Jones, Creola Jones, and Octavia Morgan; four grandchildren, all of Dover, DE, one brother, Clarence C. Burris III, Esq. (wife, Veronica) of Fairfax, V A; one sister, Joyce Burris of Dover, DE; one uncle, Winfred (Catherine) Snell of Milford, DE; aunts, Jean Smallwood and McCraye (Steve) Owens of Newburg, NY, Delema Burris

Carter and Frances Burris (Herman) Mosley of Felton, DE; two nieces, one nephew and a host of cousins, other relatives, friends and loved ones.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Marva Jones, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

HS

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of a great lady and friend. I know God has another angel in Marva. Family always remember the great and joyful times you shared, now she and BJ are somewhere in Heaven smiling down on us all. GOD BLESS all in this great family!

Howard Smack - September 11, 2014 at 12:00 AM