“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Along with the support and encouragement received from family and friends, God's Word, the Bible gives us much comfort and a sure hope for the future especially for our loved ones who have passed away. Jesus Christ tells us that one day those who have died will hear his voice and come back to life (John 5:28, 29). Why? Because the Bible helps us to appreciate God's thoughts that death is an enemy not just to mankind, but to God also (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why He promises to get rid of forever all pain, suffering, and death mankind experiences (Revelation 21:3-5). What a glorious day that will be! What God purposed in the beginning when He created mankind will be fulfilled (Genesis 1:28). He wants us to enjoy life forever on earth in the real life when we will be a united and loving family (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). I know it sounds too good to be true; but God cannot lie (Titus 1:2). I hope you're comforted by this wonderful hope. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible is a great source of encouragement during times like this. May the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3) comfort you.
